

I am against the use of cell phones on airplanes. It will disrupt what little peace we have on today's overcrowded planes. I do not want to be forced to listen to other peoples' conversations.